1. A Czechoslovak Army hostel, with underground shelters, is under construction in Prague-Dejvice, near the terminus of the No. 7 streetcar line. It will be eight or nine stories high and will serve as a hostel for members of the armed forces. The spacious underground shelters beneath the building are said to be intended to serve as the Czechoslovak Army Headquarters in case of war. Several apartment houses for regular Army officers and warrant officers are under construction in the vicinity of this building. The construction work is being carried out by Konstruktiva.
2. The Masaryk College students' hostel in Prague-Dejvice was requisitioned for the Police in about the winter of 1951-52. Now, underground shelters are being built beneath it and Army offices are being moved in. The Police are moving out and taking over the Archbishop's Seminary in Dejvice.
3. A military installation of unknown purpose is under construction on the northwest outskirts of Prague, at the southern edge of a wood, about 1,500 meters northwest of Nebusice. Access to the wood at this point is prohibited.
